Lowell Drown, Reid Barclay and Peter and Robert Barclay are among the Norwich university men home for the Easter vacation.

"Home Brew," a monthly magazine, contains articles by William W. LaPoint, formerly of Barre. On sale at Martin's Book store.—adv.

Joseph Maggiani, a former resident of this city and well known among the younger people in the north end, is in the city to-day on business.

Miss Elsie Caven, who was operated on at the City hospital several weeks ago for appendicitis, was able to go to her home on Maple avenue to-day.

Donald W. Smith of Perry street left to-day for Dartmouth college to attend the initiation of George Edmund Douglas, a former Spaulding student now attending Dartmouth and who is to be initiated to-night into Alpha Omega chapter of Beta Theta Pi.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hutchinson of Wellington street left to-day for Randolph to attend the funeral of Mrs. Carl Thresher, who passed away in Melrose Highlands, Mass. The burial is to be made in Randolph. Mrs. Thresher was a sister to Mr. Hutchinson and was well known in this vicinity, having made several visits here in the past few years.

The first baseball team to get organized this season is what is known as the South End Athletic association. The boys in that end of the city have a strong team which they are willing to put up against any other team in the city and are willing to fill out dates with any team wishing to arrange a schedule with them. Anyone wishing to schedule a game should call or write George Ironside of Elmore street.

The Spaulding high school girls were defeated last night by the Community club girls' basketball team in Montpelier by the score of eighteen to nine. No blame should be given the girls who played the game last night as three of the regular players on the local team were unable to play last night owing to the fashion show in the Magnet theatre here. Two of the girls who played last evening had not played a game this year, nevertheless they put up a good fight.

At the special city meeting held in the opera house Thursday evening, a small collection of voters adopted a resolution, presented by Silvio Cardini, to authorize the city council to issue its note, or notes, to the amount of $140,000, in addition to that allowed by the charter, for the purpose of meeting current city expenses.

The bill of $168.44 for advertising in the Barre Daily Times for the year 1921 when the publisher of the paper was mayor of the city, was ordered paid.

The "Waterbury resolution" calling for retirement of state expenses was adopted on motion of Mayor Shield. The meeting was presided over by H. W. Scott as chairman, with City Clerk, James Smart acting as clerk of the meeting.

A banquet was tendered to the members of Barre post, American Legion, basketball team last evening by the officers of the post at the Hotel Barre. The banquet was in the form of a six-course dinner and all of the boys appreciated the spirit in which it was given. Commander Robert Mackie, who acted as toastmaster, delivered a short address to the team, congratulating them on their successful season just ended. He also emphasized the clean sportsmanship shown by the boys especially in their out of town games. This fact has been commented upon by outside newspapers and fans. James Booth responded for the team and thanked the officers for their co-operation and support during the season. Plans were also laid and discussed for the formation of another victorious team for next year. The players able to attend the banquet were: Basket, Carl, Oliver, Johnson, Booth, Bjorn and Wilson. The team and officers gathered together after the supper to pass reminiscences and comments on the hard fights and close calls in games of the past. All adjourned to the dance in the Legion hall later in the evening.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our dear friends and neighbors for each and every act of kindness rendered our loved one during his long illness and for the many expressions of sympathy in our bereavement.

The combined efforts of the Charles Leith trucking equipment and that of F. G. Rogers were necessary in moving a heavy safe from the depot to the office of McAllister and Kent in the Worthen block. A block and tackle equipment was necessary before the safe could be tipped on its side enough to permit passage up the stairs and most of the day was consumed in placing it on the top floor. The safe is one of the heavy pattern made by the Miller Safe company of Baltimore, Md.

In honor of the opening of the fifth national flower show at Indianapolis, Ind., Mayor Samuel L. Shank of this city presented to-day to Mayor Shield of Barre a handsome basket bouquet of lilies and carnations, accompanied by the following telegram: "On the opening of the fifth national flower show to-day it gives me great pleasure to send a message of flowers by wire to you." Mayor Shield accepted by telegram, Mayor D. K. Little of Montpelier was also a recipient of a similar bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. James Raycraft Honored on 25th Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. James Raycraft celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Thursday evening in the form of a reception in the vestry of the Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. Raycraft were invited to a party at the church and as they entered they were showered with confetti, greatly to their surprise. A little later they were led to the platform by old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell, and seated beneath a white bell which was suspended from the ceiling. Rev. W. G. Cooper in a few well-chosen words presented the "guests of honor," silver knives, forks and spoons and a purse of silver as a token of esteem in which they are held by their many friends. A short program was given and refreshments of cake, wafers and coffee were served. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games which the old and young alike enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Raycraft received congratulations from everyone and as the friends departed they left their good wishes with them.

Mrs. John McLeod of Westfield, Mass., is visiting friends here.

Niek LoSasso has started to erect a new building in the place of the one which burned last December.

Lucy Cumming of east hill and Mrs. Maud Wildbur of Barre were in town Thursday to attend the reception given Mr. and Mrs. James Raycraft Thursday evening.

Walter Geake was in Williamstown Friday on business.

What seemed to those listening a truly wonderful exhibition of radio-phonics was heard last night at the home of Harold Westcott, 44 Orange street, when a program was heard consisting of radiophone messages by voice and instrumental selections from Schenectady, N. Y., Newark, N. J., Pittsburgh, Pa., Cincinnati, O., Washington, D. C., and Madison, Wis. The music from the latter place, which is 1,050 miles away, air line, was very clear. The signature of the station is W. H. A. The University of Wisconsin, department of physics, and the concert was by the Wisconsin university glee club. The voice was modulated and very clear. The message from Schenectady, N. Y., at 11:30 was so loud that one could hear it downstairs, three rooms away from the machine. The audience at the Westcott home listened to Alma Gluck and Lambert Murphy among others last evening, the latter concert coming from Cincinnati, W. L. W.
